Fused Solutions, LLC and United Food and Commercial Workers, District Union Local One. Case 03-CA-098461

May 6, 2013 DECISION AND ORDER

BY CHAIRMAN PEARCE AND MEMBERS GRIFFIN AND BLOCK

This is a refusal-to-bargain case in which the Respondent is contesting the Union's certification as bargaining representative in the underlying representation proceeding. Pursuant to a charge filed by the Union on February 15, 2013, the Acting General Counsel issued the complaint on February 22, 2013, alleging that the Respondent has violated Section 8(a)(5) and (1) of the Act by refusing the Union's requests to recognize and bargain and to furnish relevant and necessary information following the Union's certification in Case 03-RC083193. (Official notice is taken of the "record" in the representation proceeding as defined in the Board's Rules and Regulations, Secs. 102.68 and 102.69(g); Frontier Hotel, 265 NLRB 343 (1982).) The Respondent filed an answer, admitting in part and denying in part the allegations in the complaint, and asserting affirmative defenses.

On March 21, 2013, the Acting General Counsel filed a Motion for Summary Judgment. On March 25, 2013, the Board issued an order transferring the proceeding to the Board and a Notice to Show Cause why the motion should not be granted. The Respondent filed a response.

Ruling on Motion for Summary Judgment

The Respondent admits its refusal to bargain and to provide information, but contests the validity of the certification on the basis of the issues raised in the representation proceeding. The Respondent also argues that the Board lacks a quorum because the President's recess appointments are constitutionally invalid, the complaint is ultra vires because the Acting General Counsel and the Regional Director did not lawfully hold those offices at the time that the complaint was filed, and that the Board, the Acting General Counsel and the Regional Director have no authority to act in this proceeding. ¹

All representation issues raised by the Respondent were or could have been litigated in the prior representation proceeding. The Respondent does not offer to adduce at a hearing any newly discovered and previously unavailable evidence, nor does it allege any special circumstances that would require the Board to reexamine the decision made in the representation proceeding. We therefore find that the Respondent has not raised any representation issue that is properly litigable in this unfair labor practice proceeding. See Pittsburgh Plate Glass Co. v. NLRB, 313 U.S. 146, 162 (1941).

We also find there are no factual issues warranting a hearing with respect to the Union's request for information. The complaint alleges, and the Respondent admits, that by letter dated January 15, 2013, the Union requested the following information:

- A. 1) Employee's Name
 - 2) Employee's Rate of Pay
 - 3) Employee's Job Classification
 - 4) Employee's date of hire
 - 5) Employee's date of birth
 - 6) Employee's status (full time and part time)
- B. 1) Total hours worked per employee over the last 12-month period.
- 2) Overtime Hours worked over the last 12-month period.
- C. 1) A copy of all current company personnel policies, practices or procedures including any statements or descriptions regarding such personnel policies, practices or procedures.
- 2) A copy of all company fringe benefit plans including, pension, profit sharing, severance, stock incentive, vacation, health and welfare, 401k Plan, legal services, child care or any other plans which relate to the employees.
 - 3) Copies of all current job descriptions.
- D. Copies of any Company Wage or Salary Plans.
- E. Identify each employee's choice of health care.
- F. Cost per month per employee to the employee who selects Health Insurance.
- G. Cost per month per employee to the employer to provide Health Insurance.

The complaint further alleges, and the Respondent admits, that by letter dated January 30, 2013, the Union requested a list of all current employees along with home addresses and phone numbers, and work schedules for the next 2 weeks.

It is well established that the foregoing type of information concerning the terms and conditions of employment of unit employees is presumptively relevant for purposes of collective bargaining and must be furnished on request. See, e.g. Metro Health Foundation, Inc., 338 NLRB 802 (2003). The Respondent has not asserted any basis for rebutting the presumptive relevance of the information. Rather, the Respondent raises as an affirmative defense its contention, rejected above, that the Union was improperly certified. We find that the Respondent unlawfully refused to furnish the information sought by the Union.

Accordingly, we grant the Motion for Summary Judgment.

On the entire record, the Board makes the following

FINDINGS OF FACT

I. JURISDICTION

At all material times, the Respondent has been a limited liability company with an office and place of business in Potsdam, New York (the facility) where it operates a call center.

Annually, the Respondent, in conducting its operations described above, purchases and receives at its Potsdam, New York facility goods valued in excess of $50,000 directly from points outside the State of New York.

We find that the Respondent is an employer engaged in commerce within the meaning of Section 2(2), (6), and (7) of the Act, and that the Union, United Food and Commercial Workers, District Union Local One, is a labor organization within the meaning of Section 2(5) of the Act.

II. ALLEGED UNFAIR LABOR PRACTICES

A. The Certification

Following the representation election held on July 26, 2012, the Union was certified on January 11, 2013, as the exclusive collective-bargaining representative of the employees in the following appropriate unit:

All full-time and regular part-time Level 1, Level 2, and Level 3 customer service support technicians employed by Respondent at its Potsdam, New York location; excluding all office clerical employees, confidential employees, guards, and professional employees and supervisors as defined in the Act.

The Union continues to be the exclusive collectivebargaining representative of the unit employees under Section 9(a) of the Act.

B. Refusal to Bargain

On about January 30, 2013, the Union, by letter, requested that the Respondent bargain collectively with it as the exclusive collective-bargaining representative of the unit. Since about February 15, 2013, the Respondent has failed and refused to recognize and bargain with the Union as the unit employees' exclusive collective-bargaining representative.

About January 15 and 30, 2013, the Union, by letters, requested that the Respondent furnish it with the information set forth above that is necessary for, and relevant to, the Union's performance of its duties as the exclusive collective-bargaining representative of the unit. Since about February 15, 2013, the Respondent has failed and refused to furnish the Union with the requested information.

We find that these failures and refusals constitute an unlawful failure and refusal to recognize and bargain with the Union in violation of Section 8(a)(5) and (1) of the Act.

CONCLUSION OF LAW

By failing and refusing since about February 15, 2013, to recognize and bargain with the Union as the exclusive collective-bargaining representative of the employees in the unit and to furnish the Union with requested information regarding the terms and conditions of employment of unit employees, the Respondent has engaged in unfair labor practices affecting commerce within the meaning of Section 8(a)(5) and (1) and Section 2(6) and (7) of the Act.

REMEDY

Having found that the Respondent has violated Section 8(a)(5) and (1) of the Act, we shall order it to cease and desist, to recognize and bargain on request with the Union and, if an understanding is reached, to embody the understanding in a signed agreement. We shall also order the Respondent to furnish the Union with the information it requested.²

To ensure that the employees are accorded the services of their selected bargaining agent for the period provided by law, we shall construe the initial period of the certification as beginning the date the Respondent begins to bargain in good faith with the Union. Mar-Jac Poultry Co., 136 NLRB 785 (1962); accord: Burnett Construction Co., 149 NLRB 1419, 1421 (1964), enfd. 350 F.2d 57 (10th Cir. 1965); Lamar Hotel, 140 NLRB 226, 229 (1962), enfd. 328 F.2d 600 (5th Cir. 1964), cert. denied 379 U.S. 817 (1964).

² The Respondent contends that the remedy requested by the Acting General Counsel and granted here is "punitive and would cause an undue hardship... because negotiating with the improperly certified union will unduly disrupt business operations." Respondent's opposition to the Motion for Summary Judgment, p. 15, fn. 3. For the reasons set forth above, we reject the Respondent's contention.
